

Unknown

What could it be?
I do not know
No one knows
For it is unknown

It's unknown to mankind
Unknown for a reason
It might be deadly
It could be secrets

Secrets that are supposed to
Be held unknown to mankind
Could someone know?
If they did, what would happen?

It hurts you
But you have no proof
No scars
No pain but how does it hurt?

The unknown
Is now known
The unknown isn't a secret
Because it is unknown.
